

Child protection and domestic abuse:
learning from international perspectives

Seminar Programme

9.30 Welcome

Sarah Morton, Co-Director Knowledge Exchange, CRFR

9.45 Vulnerabilities and resilience in children exposed to domestic violence: What can we learn from lived experiences

Ramona Alaggia, Factor-Intwentash Chair in Children's Mental Health and Professor of Social Work, University of Toronto

10.15 Keeping mothers in mind: Trauma informed approaches to supporting mothers who have experienced violence and their young children

Angelique Jenney, Director of Family Violence Services, Child Development Institute, Toronto

10.45 Coffee Break

11.00 Can children leave a violent relationship? Post-separation violence and abuse and the problems for the intervention system

Cathy Humphreys, University of Melbourne

11.30 Discussion

12.00 What this means for practice and policy in Scotland

Panel Chaired by Marsha Scott, Chair of the West Lothian Violence against Women Strategic Group and UK Expert on the European Observatory on Violence against Women.

12.45 Lunch & Close