Information about you: how we use it and with whom we share it

CRFR processes the personal data of our internal and external stakeholders, in order to deliver and improve the opportunities and services we provide in a personalised manner, to ensure each individual receives relevant information and to ensure we use resources in the most efficient and effective way.. The information you provide will be used by the University to:

- Keep you up to date with news about CRFR and our networks
- Ensure we only communicate with you about events, opportunities, publications or services of interest to you

We are currently using information about you because you have previously given us consent to be added to our newsletter mailing list.

We will hold the personal data you provided us for 1 year. After this period we will send communication to you querying whether you wish to remain on our mailing list. Alternatively, you can opt out of the mailing list at any time.

We do not use profiling or automated decision-making processes. A human decision maker will always be involved before any decision is reached in relation to you.
