

JRF

JOSEPH
ROWNTREE
FOUNDATION

Preventing and ending poverty - in families, relationships and communities

27 November 2013

An invited seminar organised by
Centre for Research on Families and Relationships
on behalf of Joseph Rowntree Foundation

---

Programme

- 10.30 Coffee
- 11.00 Welcome, Chair: Lynn Jamieson, Co-director, CRFR
- 11.05 Introduction, Adrian Sinfield, Emeritus Professor of Social Policy
- 11.10 Judy Corlyon, Principal Researcher, Tavistock Institute reflects on the challenges facing us in preventing poverty, drawing on her JRF-commissioned work on personal relationships and poverty.
- 11.20 Preventing poverty session one: Group discussion A
- 12.10 Buffet lunch
- 12.40 Preventing poverty session two: Group discussion B
- 1.30 Fiona McHardy, Community Research Officer, Poverty Alliance reflects on ways of tackling existing poverty, drawing on her work as one of the group preparing the JRF-commissioned review of international and historical anti-poverty strategies.
- 1.40 Ending poverty: Group discussion C
- 2.30 Tea/coffee break
- 2.45 Bringing preventing and ending poverty together: Group discussion D
- 3.25 Sharing discussions
- 3.55 Conclusion and thanks, Chair: Lynn Jamieson, Co-director, CRFR
- 4.00 Seminar ends